of Directors, at any of which branch places of business meetings of the stockholders and of the board of directors may be held as may be provided by the by-laws of said corporation.

ARTICLE IV.

The general nature of the business proposed to be transacted by said corporation is as follows, to-wit: To acquire by purchase, exchange, subscription or otherwise, and to own, hold, sell, pledge, hypothecate, dispose of and otherwise deal in shares of the capital stock or bonds, notes or other securities or obligations, secured or unsecured, and however evidenced, of any person, association or corporation, and while such owner, to exercise all the rights and powers and to receive emoluments and other benefits incidental to the ownership thereof, including the right to vote on the stock of any corporation or association owned or held by it, as well as the right to enjoy and exercise any and all other privileges, benefits, profits, emoluments and otherwise to which, as a stockholder of such corporation or association, it would be entitled as an individual, and generally to acquire, hold, enjoy and deal in shares of the capital stock or bonds, notes or other securities or obligations, secured or unsecured, and however evidenced, of any person, association or corporation as fully to all intents and purposes as an individual might do. To acquire by purchase, exchange or otherwise, real and personal property of any and all kinds; to sell, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate and otherwise dispose of and deal in such real and personal property as fully to all intents and purposes as an individual might do. To incur obligations in effectuation of the business proposed to be transacted by said corporation, and to execute, issue, deliver and deal in evidences of its indebtedness of every kind, and to secure the same whenever it may determine by mortgage, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition of its property, real or personal, and to loan money on personal and other security. To do all and everything necessary, suitable or proper for the accomplishment of the foregoing purposes, or anything which the Board of Directors of the corporation may, from time to time, deem to be expedient for the protection or benefit of the corporation, either in the State of Arizona or in any other state or territory of the United States.

ARTICLE V.

The authorized amount of the capital stock of this corporation shall be One Hundred Thousand Dollars, divided into one thousand shares (1,000) of the par value of One hundred Dollars ($100.00) each. Such capital stock may be issued at such times as the Board of Directors may by resolution direct, either for real or personal property sold, conveyed or transferred to this corporation, and the capital stock so issued shall thereupon become and be fully paid up and non-assessable, and in the absence of actual fraud in the transaction the judgment of the Directors as to the value of the property purchased shall be conclusive.

The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be the date of the filing of these Articles of Incorporation in the office of the Corporation Commission of Arizona, and the termination thereof shall be twenty-five (25) years thereafter with the privilege of renewal as provided by law.

ARTICLE VI.

The affairs of this corporation shall be conducted by a Board of Directors composed of three stockholders who shall be elected annually on the first Monday in January of each year, at ten o'clock A. M., of said day. Until such first annual election in January, 1923, the following named stockholders shall serve as directors of this corporation for the present year and until the election and qualification of their successors, to-wit: T. E. Pollock, R. R. Pollock and W. H. Katus.

The names of the officers who shall have charge of the corporate affairs until their successors are elected and qualified are: T. E. Pollock, President; R. R. Pollock, Vice-President, and W. H. Katus, Secretary and Treasurer.

Two or more offices may be held by the same person.

ARTICLE VII.

The Board of Directors shall have power to adopt and amend by-laws for the government of the corporation, to create and fill such other offices as they may deem desirable and fix the powers and duties thereof, and to appoint an executive committee and vest said committee with such powers as they may determine. Vacancies in the Board of Directors may be filled by the remaining member or members of the Board.

ARTICLE IX.

The highest amount of debt or liability, direct or contingent, to which this corporation shall be subject at any time shall not exceed two-thirds of the par value of its capital stock issued and outstanding.

ARTICLE X.

This corporation does hereby appoint T. E. Pollock, of Flagstaff, Coconino County, Arizona, a bona fide resident of Arizona for three years last past, its lawful agent in Arizona upon whom all writs and other documents may be served in any action, suit or proceeding, that may be brought against said corporation in any court of Arizona with the same force and effect as if served upon the President and Secretary of said Company.

ARTICLE XI.

The private property of the stockholders and officers of this corporation shall be exempt from corporate debts of any kind whatever.

7-21-5tACKER HELD FOR MURDER
OF ENGE AT PRESCOTT

William E. Acker was arraigned before Judge Charles H. McLane, at Prescott, a formal charge of murder being placed against him in connection with the death of Iver Enge.

Acker was held without bail, and will await his hearing in the county jail. Enge was assaulted more than a month ago on the Midnight Test mine road, about eight or ten miles south of Prescott in the Groom Creek region. Acker has confessed to being a partner in the attack, but declares the man with him, Birch, was the one who hit Enge and later stabbed him. The story of Acker's is doubted by officials, but they have failed to get Acker to change his story in any way during numerous grillings and questionings, including one such attempt made over the body of Enge.
